

Radhe Shyam

When you feel like the world has you down on the ground,
And it's hard to face another day;
When everywhere you look you can't find an answer,
It's time to throw your hands up and say.

Radhe Shyam, Shyam (Repeat)

And you look for meaning, and you look for love,
But you're just not sure where they're found.
Give an ear to your heart, turn your search within,
Your soul will awaken to this sound.

Radhe Shyam, Shyam (Repeat)

And as the light enters your heart,
The whole world will start to glow.
And you look for your problems, but they're no longer there;
Because you've begun to know.

Radhe Shyam, Shyam (Repeat)

When you feel like the world has you down on the ground,
And it's hard to face another day;
When everywhere you look you can't find an answer,
It's time to throw your hands up and say,

Radhe Shyam, Shyam (Repeat)
